St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy name.

We are called to the holiness of God. That is the extraordinary claim made in both the First Reading and Gospel this Sunday. Yet how is it possible that we can be perfect as our Father in heaven is perfect? Jesus explains that we must be imitators of God as his beloved children. As God does, we must love without limit—with a love that does not distinguish between friend and foe, overcoming evil with good. In God’s kingdom upon earth, love is a powerful decision to push forward the cause of goodness and beauty without letting oneself be infected with the poison of whatever evil or hatred may be encountered. This decision draws its strength from the prayerful remembrance of God, who always loves the sinner even while despising the sin. The ideal is that we would share in the huge, generous and indiscriminating love that the Father has for all the children of his creation. Sunrise and raindrops come the same for all.

L'"occhio per occhio, dente per dente" dell'antica legge, nella legge nuova di Gesù è superato dal "se uno ti dà uno schiaffo sulla guancia destra, tu porgigli l'altra guancia"; l'antico detto "Amerai il tuo prossimo e odierai il tuo nemico" è trasformato in "Amate i vostri nemici e pregate per quelli che vi perseguitano". Il motivo di questo allargamento dell'orizzonte dell'amore è in quell'"affinché": lo scopo sta nella vocazione a essere "figli del Padre vostro"; come l'amore del Padre raggiunge tutti gli uomini su cui sorge il sole, tale deve essere l'amore dei cristiani: con lo stesso orizzonte infinito. Il cristiano non può accontentarsi di amare con la stessa misura dei pubblicani o dei pagani, perché la misura del suo amore è la stessa che connota l'amore del Padre celeste. Questa è la sapienza di Dio, ben diversa dalla sapienza di questo mondo, una sapienza che il mondo considera stoltezza. Un messaggio, quello della Messa di questa domenica, di fronte al quale noi cristiani dobbiamo continuamente interrogarci e convertirci, perché questo è lo scopo ultimo della vocazione cristiana: essere perfetti "come" è perfetto il Padre celeste. La perfezione consiste nell'amore
