St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – A

August 9, 2020

I hope in the Lord, I trust in his word.

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives? In the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him. The disciples are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea and rules the raging waters. And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks—"It is I"—are those God used to identify himself to Moses. Even Peter is too overcome by fear. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst. By faith, we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children. We must trust that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps, will save us whenever we begin to sink.

XIX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Molte sono le forme di paura, di timore, di angoscia che periodicamente ci invadono: paura di Dio o del futuro; paura perché il senso della vita ci sfugge. Tutti questi sono i casi nei quali siamo invitati a riprendere nella preghiera queste parole del Signore: Coraggio, sono io, non abbiate paura. Anche con Pietro, il Signore ci farà camminare sulle acque insieme con lui, ci terrà uniti a lui e, finché restiamo con lui, nulla potrà scalfirci. Certo, anche presi per mano, anche uniti al Signore, resteremo fino alla fine della nostra vita uomini di poca fede. Alla nostra poca fede, infatti, il Signore risponderà sempre come fece con Pietro: continuando ad afferrarci, a tenerci saldi, attaccati a lui. Coraggio, sono io, non abbiate paura.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Sinking Fear

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives, in the trials we encounter in trying to do His will?

God commands Elijah in today's First Reading to stand on the mountain and await His passing by. And in the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him.

In each case, the Lord makes himself present amid frightening tumult—heavy winds and high waves, fire, and earthquakes. Elijah hides his face. Perhaps he remembers Moses, who met God on the same mountain, also amid fire, thunder, and smoke. God told Moses no one could see His face and live, and He sheltered Moses in the hollow of a rock, He shelters Elijah in a cave.

The disciples, likewise, are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea and rules the raging waters. And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks—"It is I"—are those God used to identify himself to Moses.

Even Peter is too overcome by fear to imitate his Lord. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst.

Yet, we should know, as we sing in today's Psalm, that His salvation is near to those who hope in Him. By faith, we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children, Israel.

We must trust that He whispers to us in the trials of our lives—that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps. He will save us whenever we begin to sink. - Scott Hahn
