St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – A

October 11, 2020

- Happy Thanksgiving -

Today's gospel should cause us to pause and think about the wonderful future that is within our reach. It is telling us that God is longing for our homecoming in the next world. Meanwhile the one thing necessary is to make sure that we will arrive safely by responding to his love. We are never nearer that love than when we come forward at Mass to receive the Body of Christ in Holy Communion and when in our daily lives we avail of the opportunities of sharing in Christ's life. By beginning our day with a prayer or asking his blessing before we eat our food, also in the celebration of the Eucharist we are walking with one another and with Christ.

XXIX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

La domenica e' il giorno del Signore: "O Padre, che inviti il mondo intero alle nozze del tuo Figlio, donaci la sapienza del tuo Spirito, perché possiamo testimoniare qual è la speranza della nostra chiamata, e nessun uomo abbia mai a rifiutare il banchetto della vita eterna o a entrarvi senza l'abito nuziale". In questa domenica ci viene presentata, nel testo del Vangelo, un'altra parabola sul Regno di Dio. E' la parabola della festa delle nozze, alla quale sono invitati tutti, ma non tutti erano degni di parteciparvi. Alla fine la selezione tra i degni e gli indegni avviene automaticamente. Siamo pronti ad accettare l'invito della speciale festa in occasione delle nozze del Figlio del Re?

Dressing for the Feast

Our Lord's parable in today's Gospel is again a fairly straightforward outline of salvation history.

God is the king, Jesus the bridegroom, the feast is the salvation and eternal life that Isaiah prophesies in today's First Reading. The Israelites are those first invited to the feast by God's servants, the prophets. For refusing repeated invitations and even killing His prophets, Israel has been punished, its city conquered by foreign armies. Now, Jesus makes clear, God is sending new servants, His apostles, to call not only Israelites but all people—good and bad alike—to the feast of His kingdom. This an image of the Church, which Jesus elsewhere compares to a field sown with both wheat and weeds, and a fishing net that catches good fish and bad.

We have all been called to this great feast of love in the Church, where, as Isaiah foretold, the veil that once separated the nations from the covenants of Israel has been destroyed, where the dividing wall of enmity has been torn down by the blood of Christ. As we sing in today's Psalm, the Lord has led us to this feast, refreshing our souls in the waters of Baptism, spreading the table before us in the Eucharist. As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, in the glorious riches of Christ, we will find supplied whatever we need.

And in the rich food of His body, and the choice wine of His blood, we have a foretaste of the eternal banquet in the heavenly Jerusalem, when God will destroy death forever. But are we dressed for the feast, clothed in the garment of righteousness? Not all who have been called will be chosen for eternal life, Jesus warns. Let us be sure that we're living in a manner worthy of the invitation we've received. - Scott Hahn
