St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – A

October 25, 2020

"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Jesus came not to abolish the Old Testament law but to fulfill it. And in today's Gospel, He reveals that love—of God and of neighbor—is the fulfillment of the whole of the law. Devout Israelites were to keep all 613 commands found in the Bible's first five books. Jesus says today that all these, and all the teachings of the prophets, can be summarized by two verses of this law. Love is the hinge that binds the two commandments of the law. For we can't love God, whom we can't see, if we don't love our neighbor, whom we can. But this love we are called to is far more than simple affection or warm sentiment. We must give ourselves totally to God – loving with our whole beings, with all our heart, soul and mind. Our love for our neighbor must express itself in concrete actions.

XXX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

'C'è più gioia nel dare, che nel ricevere' questa è la verità della vita. Quello che spinge tanti ad essere generosi verso chi ha bisogno è l'amore verso Cristo, la fede che il bisognoso, chiunque esso sia, è 'il corpo di Cristo, come spesso afferma Papa Francesco, rifacendosi alle parole di Gesù: 'Qualunque cosa avrete fatto al più piccolo l'avete fatto a Me'. Davvero amore di Dio e amore del prossimo sono la meravigliosa e sicura via da percorrere, l'unica che dà senso alla vita, la rende eterna e dona gioia perfetta, già quaggiù. Ne vale la pena. Che il Padre ci apra gli occhi e il cuore per conoscere e sperimentare quanto ci ama e così poter moltiplicare questo Amore ricevuto verso gli altri.

Love Commanded

Jesus came not to abolish the Old Testament law but to fulfill it. And in today's Gospel, He reveals that love—of God and of neighbor—is the fulfillment of the whole of the law.

Devout Israelites were to keep all 613 commands found in the Bible's first five books. Jesus says today that all these, and all the teachings of the prophets, can be summarized by two verses of this law.

He seems to summarize the two stone tablets on which God was said to have engraved the Ten Commandments. The first tablet set out three laws concerning the love of God, such as the command not to take His name in vain; the second contained seven commands regarding love of neighbor, such as those against stealing and adultery.

Love is the hinge that binds the two tablets of the law. For we can't love God, whom we can't see, if we don't love our neighbor, whom we can.

But this love we are called to is far more than simple affection or warm sentiment. We must give ourselves totally to God—loving with our whole beings, with all our heart, soul, and mind. Our love for our neighbor must express itself in concrete actions, such as those set out in today's First Reading.

We love because He first loved us. As we sing in today's Psalm, He has been our deliverer, our strength when we could not possibly defend ourselves against the enemies of sin and death.

We love in thanksgiving for our salvation. And in this become imitators of Jesus, as Paul tells us in today's Epistle—laying down our lives daily in ways large and small, seen and unseen; our lives offered as a continual sacrifice of praise. -
