November 15, 2020

Live in me, and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit.

Jesus is our Master. Having died, risen, and ascended into heaven, He appears to have gone away for a long time. The Master has entrusted to each of us a portion of His "possessions," a share in His divine life; Jesus has given us talents and responsibilities, according to the measure of our faith. We should walk in the "fear of the Lord"—in reverence, awe, and thanksgiving for His marvellous gifts. He has called us to be trusted servants, fellow workers, using our talents to serve one another. In this, we each have a different part to play. Though the good servants in today's parable were given other numbers of talents, each "doubled" what he was given. And each earned the same reward for his faithfulness—greater responsibilities and a share of the Master's joy.

XXXIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO / A

La parabola dei talenti parla della venuta di Gesù per il giudizio universale. Quando ritornerà, egli esigerà di sapere da noi come abbiamo usato il nostro tempo, cosa abbiamo fatto della nostra vita e dei talenti che abbiamo ricevuto, cioè delle nostre capacità. Il premio per il buon uso sarà la partecipazione alla gioia del Signore, cioè al banchetto eterno. La parabola racchiude un insegnamento fondamentale: Dio non misurerà né conterà i nostri acquisti, le nostre realizzazioni. Non ci chiederà se abbiamo compiuto delle prodezze ammirate dal mondo, perché ciò non dipende da noi, ma è in parte condizionato dai talenti che abbiamo ricevuto. Vengono tenute in conto soltanto la fedeltà, l'assiduità e la carità con le quali noi avremo fatto fronte ai nostri doveri, anche se i più umili e i più ordinari.

Settling Accounts

The day of the Lord is coming, Paul warns in today's Epistle. What matters isn't the time or the season, but what the Lord finds us doing with the new life, the graces He has given to us. This is at the heart of Jesus' parable in today's Gospel. Jesus is the Master. Having died, risen, and ascended into heaven, He appears to have gone away for a long time.

By our Baptism, He has entrusted to each of us a portion of His "possessions," a share in His divine life. He has given us talents and responsibilities, according to the measure of our faith. We are to be like the worthy wife in today's First Reading and the faithful man we sing of in today's Psalm. Like them, we should walk in the "fear of the Lord"—in reverence, awe, and thanksgiving for His marvellous gifts. This reverence is the beginning of wisdom. This awe is not the "fear" of the useless servant in today's parable. His is the fear of a slave cowering before a cruel master, the fear of one who refuses the relationship that God calls us to. God has called us to be trusted servants, fellow workers, using our talents to serve one another and His kingdom as good stewards of His grace.

In this, we each have a different part to play. Though the good servants in today's parable were given other numbers of talents, each "doubled" what he was given. And each earned the same reward for his faithfulness—greater responsibilities and a share of the Master's joy. Let us resolve again in this Eucharist to make much of what we've been given and to do all for the glory of God. That we, too, may approach our Master with confidence and love when He comes to settle accounts.

- Scott Hahn
