CHRIST the KING

November 22, 2020

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Church year ends today with a vision of the end of time. The scene in the Gospel is stark and resounds with Old Testament echoes. The Son of Man is enthroned over all nations and peoples of every language. The countries have been gathered to see His glory and receive His judgment. The King is the divine shepherd Ezekiel foresees in today's First Reading, judging as a shepherd separates sheep from goats. Each of us will be judged upon our performance of the simple works of mercy we hear in the Gospel today. Our faith is dead, lifeless unless it is expressed in works of love. And we cannot say we truly love God, whom we cannot see if we don't love our neighbour, whom we can see.

CRISTO RE DELL'UNIVERSO / A

Eccoci alla fine dell'anno liturgico. La prossima domenica inizia l'Avvento e con esso un nuovo anno, all'insegna dell'attesa e della vigilanza. La fine del mondo e il giudizio finale che il vangelo di Matteo ci offre e' certamente un invito ad uscire dal recinto della comunità cristiana per abbracciare tutta l'umanità. È il giudizio di tutti i popoli della terra; dinanzi a Gesù tutti gli uomini e le donne della terra saranno giudicati. Il giudizio è un dono, e' una chiamata offerta in ogni tempo per ogni uomo e donna di buona volontà. Nel giudizio finale è molto più quello che ci unisce che quello che ci distingue e divide. Gesù è il povero seduto in mezzo all'umanità. Le sue parole ci ricordano che Lui, il Signore, è tutto coinvolto nel dramma della storia e nelle vicende dell'umanità.

When the End Comes

The Church year ends today with a vision of the end of time. The scene in the Gospel is stark and resounds with Old Testament echoes.

The Son of Man is enthroned over all nations and peoples of every language. The countries have been gathered to see His glory and receive His judgment. The King is the divine shepherd Ezekiel foresees in today's First Reading, judging as a shepherd separates sheep from goats.

Each of us will be judged upon our performance of the simple works of mercy we hear in the Gospel today. As Jesus explains today, these works are reflections or measures of our love for Him, our faithfulness to His commandment that we love God with all our might and our neighbour as ourselves.

Our faith is dead, lifeless unless it is expressed in works of love. And we cannot say we truly love God, whom we cannot see if we don't love our neighbour, whom we can. The Lord is our shepherd, as we sing in today's Psalm. And we are to follow His lead, to imitate His example. He healed our sickness, freed us from the prison of sin and death, welcomed us who were once strangers to His covenant. He clothed us in Baptism and fed us with the food and drink of His own body and blood.

At "the end," He will come again to hand over His kingdom to His Father, as Paul says in today's Epistle. Let us strive to follow Him on the right paths, that this kingdom might be our inheritance, that we might enter into the eternal rest promised for the people of God.
