St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 31, 2021

O that today you would listen to the voice of the Lord. Do not harden your hearts!

The Gospel of Mark makes it clear that, from the very first day of Christ's public ministry, his messianic power began to be manifested to those who saw and heard him. The Jews of Capernaum were "astonished" at his teaching and "amazed" at his power over the evil spirits. "What is this," they asked one another, "a new teaching and the unclean spirits obey him!" But they were still a long way from recognizing him for what he was, the Messiah and Son of God. This is as might be expected, the astounding mystery of the incarnation was way beyond human expectation or human imagination. And it was our Lord's own plan to reveal this mystery, slowly and gradually, so that when the chain of evidence had been completed by his resurrection, his followers could look back and see each link in that chain.

IV DOMENICA IN TEMPO ORDINARIO / B

La fede e l'esperienza religiosa degli ebrei conosceva il mistero del male, la sua prepotenza nel tenere prigioniera una vita umana, eppure nella consapevolezza che Dio può liberare da questa schiavitù, umanamente invincibile, che lega il potere della morte al mistero del male. Israele ha conosciuto Dio come liberatore e salvatore, così come conosce l'opposizione tra il bene e il male, ma ora, con Gesù, si completa la rivelazione che il Signore è capace di liberare l'uomo dal male. Gesù, che ha appena chiamato i primi discepoli, si trova davanti la presenza del male che si oppone alla sua opera di liberazione. La capacità di liberare dal male rivela chi è Colui che ha il potere di liberarci. La buona notizia è che con Gesù Dio ci libera dal male e ci dà la vita.

The King's Authority

Last week, Jesus announced the kingdom of God is at hand. This week, in mighty words and deeds, He exercises His dominion—asserting royal authority over the ruler of this world, Satan.

Notice that today's events take place on the sabbath. The sabbath was to be an everlasting sign—both of God's covenant love for His creation and His deliverance of His covenant people, Israel, from slavery.

On this sabbath, Jesus signals a new creation—that the Holy One has come to purify His people and deliver the world from evil.

“With an unclean spirit” is the biblical language for a man possessed by a demon, Satan being the prince of demons. The demons' question: “What have you to do with us?” is often used in Old Testament scenes of combat and judgment.

And as God by His Word “rebuked” the forces of chaos, Mark uses the same word to describe Jesus rebuking the demons. Jesus is the prophet foretold by Moses in today's First Reading. He comes to condemn the forces of evil and chaos—not only in the world but in our lives. He wants to make us holy in body and spirit. In this liturgy, we hear His voice and “see” His works, as we sing in today's Psalm. And as Moses tells us today, we should listen to Him. - Scott Hahn
