St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 18, 2021

Lord Jesus, open the Scriptures to us: make our hearts burn with love when you speak.

The Church is given the mandate to continue the saving work of Jesus Christ: 'In his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached... You are witnesses to this.' The result of Jesus had been limited in time, restricted to the pace of his disciples and confined to a very small territory. Jerusalem, the center of the Jewish world, is Luke's image for this determined mission. The mission of the Church, however, would engage many feet, many hands and many mouths. It would spread out from Jerusalem far and wide. 'You will be my witnesses.'

III DOMENICA DI PASQUA

I due discepoli diretti a Emmaus tornano indietro, di corsa, Gerusalemme li aspetta, il loro cuore è in tumulto. I discepoli ascoltano il loro racconto stupiti. E mentre i discepoli parlano del risorto, Gesù appare e porta la pace. Gesù appare sempre come un fantasma, siamo nel dominio della fede, nessuno ci può garantire assolutamente che tutto ciò che diciamo sia evidente. Solo con la fede possiamo sperimentare la concretezza della tenerezza di Dio. Per annunciare il Risorto, per crescere nella fede, non abbiamo che un modo: lasciarci fare, lasciare che la Parola illumini la nostra intelligenza e ci trasformi nel cuore e nello spirito.

Understanding the Scriptures

Jesus, in today's Gospel, teaches His apostles how to interpret the Scriptures.

He tells them that all the Scriptures of what we now call the Old Testament refer to Him. He says that all the promises found in the Old Testament have been fulfilled in His Passion, death, and Resurrection. And He tells them that these Scriptures foretell the mission of the Church—to preach forgiveness of sins to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

God has brought to fulfillment what He announced beforehand in all the prophets Peter preaches. His sermon is shot through with Old Testament images. He evokes Moses and the Exodus, in which God revealed himself as the ancestral God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He identifies Jesus as Isaiah's suffering servant who has been glorified.

The Scriptures are interpreted to serve and advance the Church's mission—to reveal the truth about Jesus, bring people to repentance, the wiping away sins, and the perfection of their love for God.

This is how we, too, should hear the Scriptures. Not to know more "about" Jesus, but to truly know Him personally and to know His plan for our lives.

In the Scriptures, the light of His face shines upon us as we sing in today's Psalm. We know the wonders He has done throughout history. And we have the confidence to call to Him and to know that He hears and answers. - Scott Hahn
