St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

TWENTY EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 10, 2021

Fill us with your love, O Lord, that we may rejoice and be glad.

The Gospel today, from Saint Mark, tells the story of a very good young man who wants to follow Jesus and has been deeply faithful to the teachings of God in his Jewish faith. Yes, when Jesus asks the young man to give up all his wealth and come and follow him, then the young man goes away sad. What a strong teaching. God is always asking things of each of us. We are like the rich young man in so many ways: good and not yet totally committed. We don't know what the young man did later on. Perhaps he ended up selling everything and giving it to the poor and following Jesus. We can ask ourselves what would make us sad to give up for the sake of following the Lord.

XXVIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Il racconto evangelico trae origine dalla domanda del giovane ricco che chiede a Gesù di indicargli la strada per la vita eterna. A Gesù che gli indica la strada dell'osservanza dei comandamenti e gli risponde di averli osservati fin dalla giovinezza. Quel giovane è amato da Gesù perché osserva i comandamenti, quindi possiede la sapienza di Dio. Per questo Gesù pensa di proporgli qualcosa di più, la strada per giungere alla pienezza della sapienza: la proposta di lasciare tutto per Dio. Il giovane non accoglie questo invito. E, rispondendo alla domanda degli apostoli, che già hanno lasciato tutto per seguirlo, indica il dono più grande che offre vita eterna.

Wisdom and Riches

In today's Gospel, the rich young man wants to know what we all want to know—how to live in this life so that we might live forever in the world to come. He seeks what today's Psalm calls "wisdom of the heart." Jesus tells him, observing the commandments is essential to walking the path of salvation—but it can only get us so far. In Jesus, we encounter Wisdom, the living and effective Word of God. As He does with the rich man today, He looks upon each of us with love. That look of love, that loving gaze, is a personal invitation—to give up everything to follow Him. What are the "many possessions" that keep us from giving ourselves totally to God? What are we clinging to—material things, comfort zones, relationships? What will it take for us to live fully for Christ's sake and the sake of the Gospel? Let us pray for the wisdom to enter into the kingdom of God. With the Psalmist, let us ask Him, "Teach us."

- Scott Hahn.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE: Let's stand with the oppressed in their quest for recognition.

In Honduras and Cambodia, organizations supported by Development and Peace are raising the voices of communities oppressed by a model of economic development that violates their rights. The Holduran Center for the Promotion of Community Development (CEHPRODEC) trains environmental leaders to defend natural resources, the environment and human rights. In Cambodia, Development and Partnership in Action (DPA)'s mission is, in part, to enable communities affected by extractive industries to gain advocacy skills so they can organize and defend their rights.

We can support these partners by recognizing the role we can play in an unjust global system and taking action to change it. This year, the action highlighted by the People and Planet First campaign is about holding Canadian companies accountable for their operations abroad—to ensure that Canada is not complicit in the violation of the rights of our brothers and sisters.
