St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

CHRIST THE KING

November 21, 2021

The Lord will reign forever and will give his people the gift of peace.

Truth and light have been important themes in John's Gospel. We see it emphasized in the conclusion of the dialogue between Jesus and Pilate. Those who know the truth will recognize Jesus as king and come to light. In John's language, the world prefers darkness, and yet the light will not be overcome by the darkness. Do we know and believe how to interpret and recognize these special signs in our time? Yet Jesus' kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries. Only those chosen, those who have the eyes of faith can see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we also struggle at times to recognize Jesus as king. Today's Gospel invites us to see with eyes of faith that we might recognize that Jesus, through his crucifixion and death, is indeed king and Savior of all.

N.S. GESU' CRISTO RE DELL'UNIVERSO

Nel Vangelo di oggi Gesù dice a Pilato che Lui è re, ma il suo regno non è di questo mondo. Quindi è re sì, ma dell'altro mondo. Ma il Re dell'altro mondo, ha voluto venire in questo mondo e farsi uno di noi. Facendosi uomo ha preso gli stessi atomi e le stesse cellule che compongono ognuno di noi. Centomila miliardi di cellule di cui ognuna contiene circa mille miliardi di atomi: ecco di cosa è formato il corpo umano. Certo siamo veramente fatti in modo straordinario! Le stelle nel cielo che sembrano così grandiose e immortali, sono nulla nei confronti di ciò che noi siamo. Quando si dice che l'uomo è polvere di stelle, si dice troppo poco: l'uomo è infinitamente di più perché è corpo e anima e sopravviverà per i secoli eterni. Siamo dunque noi, le vere stelle che brilleranno in eterno se seguiamo Cristo Re dell'universo nel suo regno.

A Royal Truth

What's the truth Jesus comes to bear witness to in this last Gospel of the Church's year? Jesus tells Pilate, there's far more going on here than the restoration of a temporal monarchy. In the Revelation reading, Jesus calls Himself "the Alpha and the Omega," the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet. He's applying to Himself a description that God uses to describe Himself in the Old Testament—the first and the last, the One who calls forth all generations. In the vision of Daniel we hear in today's First Reading, He comes on "the clouds of heaven"—another sign of His divinity—to be given "glory and kingship" forever over all nations and peoples. Christ is King and His kingdom, while not of this world, exists in this world in the Church. We are a royal people. We know we have been loved by Him and freed by His blood and transformed into "a kingdom, priests for his God and Father".

- Scott Hahn.

COVID-19 UPDATE: With the Province of Ontario lifting some capacity limits to certain establishments this week, this change does not affect our parish churches. We still remain at our capacity limits, depending on social distancing. To move to full capacity with no distancing would mean that only fully vaccinated people may attend Mass. We cannot move to that situation at this time. We encourage everyone to be vaccinated for their safety and the safety of their families and those around them. Masks are still required to be worn at Mass and hand sanitizing is recommended. There is no congregational singing and Communion is to be received in the hand. Social distancing must take place outside of the church also. Small meetings of up to 25 people may take place in parish halls, as long as everyone is fully vaccinated. We ask you to continue to follow these safety norms as we move slowly out of this pandemic time.

Thank you
