St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME—C

July 24, 2022

You have received a Spirit of adoption, in whom we cry, Abba! Father!

It has been said that he who prays rises from his knees a better person. It always happens as we get to know God more; we know ourselves better. Prayer makes us realize how much we need God and deepens our sense of dependence on his saving help. We become aware that we stand before God in weakness, powerlessness and yet in the hope that his grace can make something of us. In the rush and noise of life, which drowns out the voice of God, we must find a time and a place of silence to pray. It is only in silence we can speak to God, and God can speak to us.

XVII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO / C

In che modo noi ci rivolgiamo a Dio? Quale il nostro atteggiamento quando preghiamo? Insegnaci a pregare. Insegnare, imparare sono verbi che non descrivono azioni precise che si concludono in un atto, ma descrivono processi che si compiono in un'intera vita. Insegnaci a pregare equivale allora nel chiedere al Signore di aiutarci ad imparare alla sua scuola, di tenerci come discepoli, di farci scoprire la sua presenza e grazia. Chiedere, cercare e bussare sono azioni che ci fanno crescere nella fiducia in un padre che attende la richiesta dei figli e sa dar loro ciò di cui hanno bisogno. Gesù, insegnaci a pregare il Padre come tu hai fatto!

DO YOU LIKE TO PRAY?

The Church teaches us what prayer means and how we should pray, thanks to the biblical readings. The account of Abraham's intercession on behalf of the depraved cities of Sodom and Gomorrah (Gen 18:20-32: 1st reading) shows that God's chastisements are not the consequence of irrevocable predestination.

The mediation of men who know God's love is capable of awakening his mercy. St. Luke gives us a series of teachings from Jesus on how one should pray. Jesus first invites people to pray, for any request, with confidence and assures each person that all sincere prayers will be answered, "Whoever asks obtains; whoever seeks finds, and it will be opened to him who knocks." Then Jesus says that an earthly father only gives his children good things and does not want to deceive them. How could God, the best of fathers, send us something bad when his children ask him for help? The parable of the man who solicits his friend is based on the rule of revival: if an earthly friend is not able to send away the one who has come to pray to him, even if he asks for his help in the worst circumstances, all the more reason God-who is our best friend-will answer our prayers! Especially since we for him are never importunate. All this finds its most convincing expression in the prayer that the Lord teaches his disciples. If we have made God's concern our own: namely, that his name is known and recognized and that his kingdom comes into the world, he will make our concerns his own. Therefore, the Lord's prayer is the summary of the whole gospel. And that is why it is the foundation and heart of all human prayer.
