St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME--C

July 31, 2022

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

We can overcome the temptation of greed by helping those who are less fortunate than ourselves. What is given to others is not lost but is transformed into a treasure for eternity. In the evening of life, we will be measured by the good we have done. Rather than wrap money around our hearts, we are urged to give and share our blessings with others in need. In the light of what Jesus says, each of us has some hard thinking about our attitude towards possessions. God is at the end of the line waiting for us when life is over to bless us with his real treasure of life eternal.

XVIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Gesù nel vangelo di oggi afferma che beni e ricchezze portano gli uomini a sentirsi lontani da Dio e dal prossimo, a pensare di essere assicurati contro la miseria, la vecchiaia e la morte e a soddisfare i piaceri di questo mondo. E ancora, per molti uomini, il successo materiale è il simbolo della benedizione di Dio. E pensano che Dio non possa pretendere di più da loro. Ora, anche per essi, il principale comandamento è l'ultimo criterio che permetterà di giudicare la loro vita. Ecco perché la ricchezza deve essere per ognuno un mezzo di azione: un mezzo per impegnarsi per il bene anche degli altri.

RICH IN THE EYES OF GOD

The essential message of today's Gospel is so clear that it needs no interpretation: "Beware and keep yourselves from all covetousness, for a man's life does not depend on his possessions." And "get rich before God!" But since gaining possessions is a fundamentally human aspiration, it is therefore worth going into the details of the parable of the rich fool told by Jesus. Wealth gives men certain security, allows them to dispose of their own lives, not to depend completely on others or the state, to organize their sphere of life, to occupy themselves with things that please them, to actualize great missions or great purposes. To this extent, goods are necessary for a right existence. Jesus does not question the good use of goods and riches. But he affirms that goods and riches lead men to feel distant from God and neighbor, to think they are insured against misery, old age and death, and to satisfy the pleasures of this world. And still, for many men, material success is a symbol of God's blessing. They think they have fulfilled their role in a life well when they acquire wealth and consideration. And that God cannot demand more from them. Even for them, the main commandment is the last criterion allowing them to judge their lives. That is why wealth must be a means of action for everyone: engaging with others. By helping those in distress and sharing generously, one will be truly rich: rich in the eyes of God.
