St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

August 14, 2022

My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me

Hearing the Gospel of this Sunday's liturgy speak of "fire thrown on the earth" in the middle of summer almost seems like an ironic choice on the part of the Church. With heat waves becoming increasingly muggy and annoying, even the Gospel is in danger of sounding annoying to us! The heat of the fire that Jesus came to bring to earth is more like the heat of love than physical and meteorological heat. Jesus does not want to raise the temperature of the air but that of the heart, that of faith. Jesus wants disciples warmed by the Gospel and eager for it to move their lives and the lives of the world around them.

XX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO PER ANNO

Il Vangelo per portare la pace nel mondo ha bisogno di discepoli innamorati di Gesù, con la passione per le sue parole e con il desiderio profondo di conoscerle e attuarle, anche se può costare divisioni e sofferenze. Qualche giorno fa abbiamo ricordato un grande santo del Vangelo, che non ha avuto paura di dare la propria vita per la passione di Gesù, ed è San Massimiliano Kolbe, frate francescano che muore nella fredda stanza della morte di Auschwitz durante la seconda guerra mondiale. Padre Massimiliano Kolbe non ha timore di perdere come Gesù la propria vita perché si è sentito totalmente immerso nel Vangelo, sapendo che anche donando così la propria vita il Vangelo vince.

OUR WAY AND GOD'S WAY

We feel attached to those who are dear to us and have great duties to those close to us, which is important. But no one is closer to us than God; no one is more precious. In a shocking, spectacular way, Jesus tells us that all our relationships must be purified, no matter how close and intimate. They must be measured against God and his purposes. This is a very stern statement. In us, the attachment to the security given by "human" love is so strong that we can easily refuse to give everything to the Lord so that he may purify it. So we are tempted to say, "Lord, you can take everything -- except this and that." So there are some things, some affections, that we want to live in our way, not according to God's way. Once we leave our relationships' governance and love to the Lord, we receive the foundation of true peace. The Lord's peace is not the peace the world gives; it is made up of forgiveness, justice, love and friendship. Peace is not merely the absence of conflict, just as it is not an immoral compromise. True peace consists in standing with others before God, purified and liberated by the truth and mercy of divine judgment.
