St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

Office Admin.: Mary Stefanile

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – C

August 28, 2022

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart.

We are all familiar with today's gospel passage which encourages the practice of humility. At a banquet to which he is invited, Jesus is not at all impressed by the sight of the guests pushing themselves forward, scrambling for the good seats and skillfully maneuvering themselves into the places of honor. He comments about good manners at the table and concludes with an invitation to an even greater banquet to which we are all called – the eternal banquet in the kingdom of heaven.

XXII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO PER ANNO

Quanto più sei grande, tanto più fatti umile... Siamo invitati dalla Parola a riscoprire l'humus della nostra vita: siamo di terra, veniamo dalla terra, torneremo alla terra. Ma in questa nostra terra - che è lo spazio della nostra vita unica ed irripetibile - Dio soffia il suo Spirito e così possiamo accostarci alla città del Dio vivente, alla Gerusalemme celeste. Al pranzo della vita, dove siamo invitati, il Signore vuole che ognuno scopra il proprio posto: né avanti, né indietro, ma proprio quel posto che Dio ha preparato per noi. Quel posto, proposto da Dio e accolto da noi, ha il nome della nostra vocazione.

THE RIGHT WAY — GOD'S WAY

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." The great teachers say that it would be best not to set humility as a goal right away. To set this goal from the beginning is to slip imperceptibly into a subtle "sufficiency." This can later lead to an excessive consideration of oneself, whereas humility consists essentially in turning one's gaze outside oneself, toward Jesus and toward the great realities of faith, such as the greatness of God and the littleness of man, eternity and the narrowness of time, the hope of heaven and the threat from our weaknesses, the beauty of holiness and the horror of sin. "He who humbles himself will be exalted." To become humble, one must begin to love. That is what Jesus did. Merciful love brought him down from heaven. Love drove him onto the roads of Palestine. Love led him to seek out the sick, the sinners, the suffering. The same love led him, without delay, to his goal, Calvary, where he "humbled himself by becoming obedient unto death and death on a cross" (Phil. 2:8). Humility was the external form of his divine charity and its external companion. Humility was an attitude peculiar to the holy Mother who, because of her purity, was pleasing to God and, because of her humility, drew God to herself, for God "resists the proud; to the humble he gives his grace instead" (Jas. 4:6). Mary was humble because she loved the will of God and the people around her. "He who humbles himself will be exalted." How can we put this phrase from the Gospel into practice? We should set as our goal the primordial charity of the Gospel and try to serve everyone we meet. Each person is our Lord, and in each of them we have the privilege of serving Jesus.

FR. LUIGI ON WHEELS: To date $7775.00
