St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – C

September 18, 2022

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

Experience teaches that the longing for happiness and security is not satisfied by any created thing. Our life is not made secure by material wealth because we have a heavenly destiny. We are here today and gone tomorrow, but we are here for a purpose. The closer we come to eternity, the more material possessions lose value. When life ends, riches prove worthless and have to be left behind. We can take nothing from this life except the good we have done. The gospel message is summarized in the quote, 'Money is an instrument that can buy everything but happiness, and purchases a ticket to every place but heaven.'

XXV DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

E se non siete stati fedeli nella ricchezza altrui, chi vi darà la vostra? Sembra un gioco di parole e di interessi; la parabola che troviamo nel vangelo ha unito diversi frasi di Gesù che, pur originate in contesti diversi, ci aiutano a comprendere il senso della parabola ed ancor più l'uso della ricchezza; non dobbiamo neppure dimenticare che i destinatari sono i discepoli. La richiesta di fedeltà alla ricchezza altrui è quella nostra che arriverà in futuro. Si potrebbe dire che quello che possediamo dalla terra alla casa, dalla finanza alla produzione, tutto quello che crediamo di possedere di fatto non è nostro ma ci è solo affidato. Dio e' la nostra ricchezza, Dio è il nostro, Amen.

THE USE OF MONEY

There is first a parable and then a series of admonitions that comment on one element of the parable itself: the use of money. The parable obviously does not praise the factor because he is dishonest, but because he has the clarity and decision to take the only path of salvation that is open to him. It is known that the art of getting by is much applied in the ambiguous enterprises of this world. It is much less so in the great enterprise of eternal salvation. Therefore, Jesus rebukes us for being more ready to save ourselves from worldly evils than eternal sin. He did everything to be saved, even going to the cross for us. We do not make up our minds to believe that we are lost unless we bring our sins before God. We begin our Masses by confessing our sins, but we start talking about others' sins again upon leaving the church. A decisive "test" of our Christian decision's authenticity is the use of money. Wealth itself is not dishonest, nor is external wealth a curse. But wealth as an idol, enamour and project, as an internal deformation of the heart and mind, which want at all costs to be producers of power and thus of economic power, is. Therefore, it is necessary to make up one's mind to choose either mammon or God; that is, to be the Lord to Lord it over or to serve the Lord and enjoy his omnipotence of love. There is only one way to free oneself from the bondage of wealth: to make oneself "friends" through what one has, that is, by the commitment of solidarity sharing.

VOLUNTEERS AT ST. JOSEPH'S CARE GROUP HOSPITAL are an integral and valued part of the care that is provided to the clients and residents that are served at this location. The volunteer program has been providing care and service in our community since 1884. The volunteer program has positively evolved over time and the continued commitment of our volunteers is evident to this day. St. Joseph's Care Group is currently looking for Eucharistic Ministers from our churches to attend on a rotating schedule to provide the Eucharist to our clients. Let us pray for direction to assist each of us to be aware and to act upon His direction for each of our lives. Is this opportunity calling out to you? Please contact Patricia at 627-4697 for further details on this wonderful opportunity.
