*I will sing to the Lord for his goodness to me,
I will sing the name of the Lord, Most High*

We are by nature prone to be anxious and troubled about many things. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus confronts us with our most common fears. We are anxious mostly about how we will meet our material needs—for food and drink; for clothing; for security for tomorrow. Yet in seeking security and comfort, we may unwittingly be handing ourselves over to servitude to "mammon," Jesus warns. "Mammon" is an Aramaic word that refers to money or possessions. Jesus is not condemning wealth. Nor is he saying that we shouldn't work to earn our daily bread or to make provisions for our future. It is a question of priorities and goals. What are we living for? Where is God in our lives? Jesus insists that we need only to have faith in God and to trust in his Providence. Let us resolve today to seek his Kingdom and his holiness before all else—confident that we are beloved sons and daughters, and that our Father in heaven will never forsake us.

VIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO (ANNO A)

Guardiamoci attorno: quanta gente vive in ansia per ogni minima cosa: e meno male che diciamo che ci fidiamo di Dio! Ma ne siamo davvero sicuri? Possiamo dire di essere unicamente preoccupati di non perdere il rapporto con Lui? A dire il vero, passiamo tranquillamente giornate intere, per non dire settimane senza pregare, mesi e mesi senza confessarci, senza ricevere l'Eucaristia, senza dedi-are tempo per la carità; ma se ci mancano 5 euro per la ricarica del cellulare, andiamo in apnea! Scegliendo il denaro, il possesso come scopo della vita, non solo si perde Dio, ma si perde anche il senso della vita che è inevitabilmente legato a Dio: e perdendo il senso della vita, non si può più vivere nella pace. Che bello invece l'invito del nostro Maestro: non affannatevi per i beni materiali; c'è il Padre vostro che per primo vi pensa! Coraggio dunque, il Padre sa di cosa abbiamo bisogno perché siamo suoi figli prediletti!
