St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – A

October 18, 2020

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY - ... Here I am, Send me! ...

God our Father, your greatest gift to mankind is your love for us and your desire that we live in your love! Your Son Jesus established your kingdom of fraternal and unconditional love on earth, among mankind. May all believers become missionary disciples, keen to build your kingdom here on earth! May your Spirit be the breath that guides all our actions, and may your Mission become our mission and the center of our concern and the one of the whole Church's faith so that your word may spread throughout the world. Amen!

XXIX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

La figura di papa Francesco, da quando abbiamo iniziato a conoscerla, suscita in ognuno di noi, credenti e no, sensazioni e sentimenti molto belli e profondi, e non credo sia esagerato affermare che ha riaccessato in tante persone il desiderio delle cose di Dio e soprattutto la gioia di credere. Il tradizionale messaggio che egli ha scritto in occasione di questa Giornata Missionaria Mondiale ci invita alla gioia del credere, la gioia di essere cristiani che e' "La gioia del Vangelo". Ogni cristiano è mandato ad annunciare a tutti che il Vangelo è gioia vera. "Non lasciamoci rubare la gioia dell'evangelizzazione!". Here I am, Send me!

Caesar and the King

The Lord is king over all the earth, as we sing in today's Psalm. Governments rise and fall by His permission, with no authority but that given from above. In effect, God says to every ruler what He tells King Cyrus in today's First Reading: "I have called you . . . though you knew me not." The Roman occupation during Jesus' time was a judgment on Israel's unfaithfulness. Jesus' famous words in today's Gospel: "Repay to Caesar" are a pointed reminder of this. And they call us, too, to keep our allegiances straight. The Lord alone is our king. His kingdom is not of this world but it begins here in His Church, which tells of His glory among all peoples. We owe the government a concern for the common good and obedience to laws—unless they conflict with God's commandments as interpreted by the Church. But we owe God everything. The coin bears Caesar's image. But we bear God's image. We owe Him our very lives—all our heart, mind, soul, and strength, offered as a living sacrifice of love. We should pray for our leaders, that like Cyrus they do God's will—until from the rising of the sun to its setting, all humanity knows that Jesus is Lord.

World Mission Sunday.

The celebration of World Mission Day is also an occasion for reaffirming how prayer, reflection, and the material help of your offerings are so many opportunities to participate actively in the mission of Jesus in his Church. The charity expressed in the collections that take place during the liturgical celebrations of the third Sunday of October is aimed at supporting the missionary work carried out in my name by the Pontifical Mission Societies, to meet the spiritual and material needs of peoples and Churches throughout the world, for the salvation of all. May the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Star of Evangelization, and Comforter of the Afflicted, missionary disciple of her Son Jesus, continue to intercede for us and sustain us. Rome, Saint John Lateran, 31 May 2020, Solemnity
