St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

October 16, 2022

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for many.

Jesus urges us to pray continually and never to grow discouraged. He encourages us with the assurance that our prayers will be answered and that we will not be disappointed. With her dogged determination to gain justice from the careless judge, the widow is put before us as an example of perseverance in prayer. Persistence is her strong point, and she exercises it relentlessly without losing her heart. Despite the odds, she keeps up her petition and wears the judge down until he eventually grants her justice.

XXIX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Come la vedova nel vangelo, anche noi: quante pre-gchiere sono volate via senza portare una risposta! Ma al-lora, Dio esaudisce o no le nostre preghiere? «Dio esau-disce sempre: non le nostre richieste, le sue promesse» (Bonhoeffer). Dice Gesù: "sono venuto per-ché abbiate la vita in pienez-za, non vi lascerò orfani, sarò con voi tutti i giorni fino al-la fine del tempo, il Padre sa di cosa avete bisogno". La preghiera è il respiro del-la fede (papa Francesco): pregare è una necessità, per-ché se smetto di respirare smetto di vivere. La preghiera è il respiro della vita.

Prayer and Justice

Christ defines himself before a world divided into two: that of the godless and heartless oppressors and that of the oppressed without protection. He discovers a sin: social sin, stronger than ever, as old as man, and he analyzes it in depth in the naiveté of a parable from which he draws a twofold lesson. That of the clamour that goes up to God crying out irritating injustice in a confident and resentment-free prayer, tenaciously serene and undiscouraged, with the assurance that it will be heard by a judge who becomes the Father of orphans and the comforter of widows. On the other hand, Jesus himself takes a stand, turning as a transforming force of man on this earth desolate of all pity, using the personal response of his suffering, agonizing, in a shameful, defenseless, and blameless judgment. He is not heard either but surrenders blindly to his Father, who obtains deliverance for all from his cross.
