St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

Office Admin.: Mary Stefanile

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - C

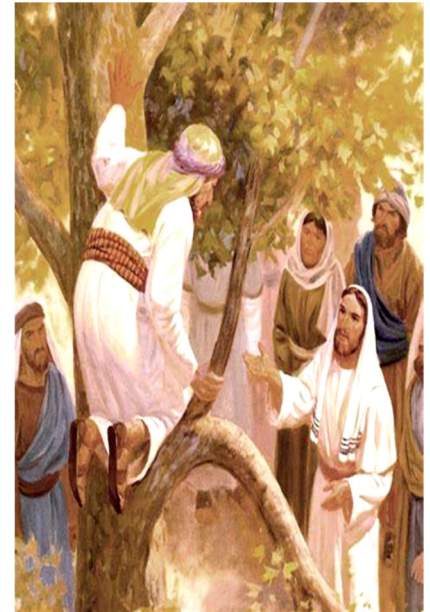

October 30, 2022

Lord, you will show me the path of life and fill me with joy in your presence.

The call of Jesus, 'Hurry, because I must stay in your house today,' goes out to everyone in the congregation. We must take full advantage of his passing by acknowledging our sins and opening our hearts to his goodness. The story's real focus is on the gospel's last line: 'The Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost.' The Lord has come to save you and me, and he meets us at the point of our need, with no strings attached. He is waiting to change our lives as soon as we show a willingness to open the door of our hearts and let his salvation work in the very center of our being.

XXXI DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Zaccheo ha sentito parlare del Galileo, quel tale Nazareno che la gente crede un guaritore, un profeta e, curioso, lo vuole vedere. E accade l'inatteso: Gesù gli sorride e lo chiama: scendi Zaccheo, scendi subito, vengo da te. Gesù non giudica, né teme il giudizio della gente: va a casa sua, si ferma, porta salvezza. Zaccheo ora cambia vita, è una persona nuova dopo aver incontrato il Maestro. Ora Zaccheo è una persona nuova. Lui, temuto e odiato da tutti, ora è un discepolo del Signore. Così anche nella storia della nostra vita si possono riparare le miserie del nostro passato: il Signore ci offre sempre la possibilità di ricominciare.

TODAY SALVATION IS AVAILABLE

A Roman administration customs checkpoint was in Jericho. Zacchaeus was the chief of the controllers. He had on his conscience not only the extortion and financial embezzlement customary among the "customs officers" of the time, but he was also considered a political and religious traitor because he collaborated with and supported the hated oppressors of Palestine.

We do not know what motivations drove Zacchaeus in his desire to see Jesus. No one in the crowd of pious Jews makes room for him in the front row or allows him to climb to his rooftop, so Zacchaeus must climb a tree. Seeing him, Jesus, on his initiative, invites himself into his home. Not only is Zacchaeus filled with joy, but Jesus himself is happy that he can forgive the repentant sinner and welcome him as a prodigal son. Jesus expresses his joy in these words, "Today salvation has entered this house, for he too is a son of Abraham." Jesus thus says his love and complete dedication to sinners: they are the ones who have turned away, yet he is the one who has come to seek them out.

DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE People and Planet

Let's keep calling for due diligence to put People and Planet First! Development and Peace's People and Planet First campaign is calling on Canada to prevent its corporations from abusing human rights and the environment in their overseas operations and global supply chains. Since September 2021, over 24,000 people have signed our petition calling for Canadian due diligence legislation.

This fall, let's continue our mobilization by inviting new people to:

1. Sign the petition for mandatory due diligence by Canadian companies operating abroad (devp.org/act).
2. Become members to join the Development and Peace family and make a commitment to social justice (devp.org/joinus).

Let's stand in solidarity with those who defend their rights and the environment for present and future generations. Learn more at devp.org/campaign.
