St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

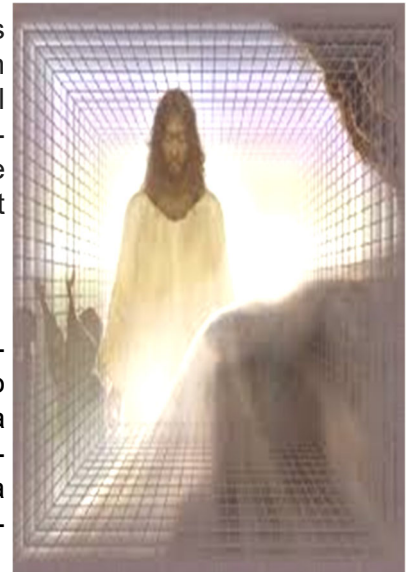

March 26, 2023

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord: whoever believes in me will not die forever.

Like the blind man in last week's readings, Lazarus represents all humanity. He stands for "dead man"—for all those Jesus loves and wants to liberate from the bands of sin and death. Like the man's birth in blindness, Lazarus' death is used by Jesus to reveal "the glory of God". Jesus' words and deeds give life to those who believe. If we believe, we will see that He calls us out of death and into new life. He has opened the graves that we may rise, put His Spirit in us that we may live. The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead will give life to us.

V DOMENICA DI QUARESIMA

L'ordine dato chiama Lazzaro a venire fuori dalla tomba. Per fare ciò Lazzaro deve lasciare il luogo dove si trova. Il morto esce, ancora legato dalle bende e col viso coperto da un sudario; è una specie di secondo miracolo il fatto che egli possa uscire dalla tomba conciato a quel modo. Vi è qui un'allusione alla risurrezione di Gesù: egli lascerà le bende riposte e il sudario piegato a parte. Inoltre le bende che Lazzaro ha ancora addosso, simboleggiano che egli ritorna solo temporaneamente sulla terra. Gesù invece le abbandonerà definitivamente invitando anche noi a vita nuova.

“Lazarus, come out!”

The account of the resurrection of Lazarus is one of the "sign stories" told by St. John. It is here about presenting Jesus, the victor over death. The story culminates in Jesus' statement about himself, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me will not die eternally". That God has the power to overcome death is already the conviction of the late Old Testament accounts. In his "Revelation," Isaiah expects God to suppress death forever, to wipe away the tears on all faces (Is 25:8). And finally, the book of Daniel predicts that the dead will rise again - some to eternal life, others to eternal horror (Dan 12:2). The one who believes in Jesus already has a share in these end-time gifts. He possesses an "endless life" that physical death cannot destroy. In Jesus, God's revelation, salvation is present, and he who is associated with him can no longer be handed over to the powers of death.

SUPPORT DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE: This weekend we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Lent & Solidarity Sunday with a Special Collection for Development & Peace. This year's theme is CREATE HOPE—STAND FOR THE LAND. Help support D&P to educate the Canadian population on the root causes of poverty & injustice in the Global South which includes Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Middle East.
