St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

Office Admin.: Mary Stefanile

XIV SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 9, 2023

Come to me and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Jesus is portrayed in today's Gospel as a new and greater Moses. Moses gave Israel the yoke of the Law, through which God first revealed himself and how we are to live. Like Moses did and Jesus is more than God's friend, as Son who alone knows the Father, He accomplish His mission. Jesus is more than a law-giver, He is the giver of a new Law, and the Wisdom of God. In the gracious will of the Father, Jesus reveals these things only to those who humble themselves before Him as little children. We too are sons and daughters of the new kingdom, the Church. As we sing in today's Psalm, we joyously await the day when we will praise His name forever in God's Kingdom.

XIV DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Nel Vangelo di oggi Gesù è raffigurato come un nuovo e più grande Mosè. Mosè ha dato a Israele il giogo della Legge, attraverso la quale Dio ha rivelato per la prima volta se stesso e come dobbiamo vivere. Come Mosè, Gesù è più che un amico di Dio, come Figlio che solo conosce il Padre, compie la sua missione. Gesù è più di un legislatore, è il datore di una nuova Legge e la Sapienza di Dio. Nella benevola volontà del Padre, Gesù rivela queste cose solo a coloro che si umiliano davanti a lui come piccoli bambini. Anche noi siamo figli e figlie del nuovo regno, la Chiesa. Come cantiamo nel Salmo di oggi, attendiamo con gioia il giorno in cui loderemo per sempre il Suo nome nel Regno di Dio.

XIV SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME:

The God-given gifts of wisdom and intelligence often get short shrift in the teaching of Jesus, who thanks God in today's Gospel for having hidden the truth from the wise and powerful .

Jesus is not much disparaging the gifts of wisdom and intelligence as he is rebuking the arrogance of people who believe their wisdom renders any reliance on God unnecessary . The wisdom Jesus dismisses is the acuity respected and celebrated by the world and worldly, while the wisdom he advocates requires turning to him and knowing him as the only conduit to knowing God.

St. Paul advances the same theme in his letter to the Corinthians, saying the message of the cross is foolishness to those perishing and that God has made foolish the wisdom of the world. The hidden truth , the truth dismissed as foolishness by the arrogant, is that the only respite from our heavy burdens and worldly suffering is to turn to God through Jesus.

The unrepentant cities were not the exclusive home to arrogance and stubbornness. Most of us fall into the false wisdom trap intermittently, believing that we can find relief from our burdens without divine help. Only when we adopt the gentle nature and humility of heart embodied by Jesus can we shift our worldly yoke of troubles onto him and in doing so make our yoke easy, our burden light.
