St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – B Taste and see that the Lord is good. August 18, 2024

He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life. "Has" eternal life now, not "will have," someday. Eternal life is not some severance pay, the final settlement I accumulate through good behavior. Eternal life has already begun, it is a different, true, righteous life, full of things that deserve not to die. A life like Jesus', good, beautiful and blessed whose name is freedom, joy and service. The answer to this powerful desire Jesus provides by offering his flesh and blood, which point to and contain his whole life, his human story, his carpenter's hands, his compassion, the nail hole, the things he loved and the things he trembled for. It is to live as he lived. But: take my humanity, as the leaven of yours; take my eyes, and look at everything with my tenderness; take my hands and learn to lift and help. Then to eat and drink Christ is to continue in Jesus' thoughts, words and deeds.

XX DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Chi mangia la mia carne e beve il mio sangue ha la vita eterna. "Ha" la vita eterna, adesso, non "avrà", un giorno. La vita eterna non è una specie di trattamento di fine rapporto, la liquidazione finale che accumulo con il mio buon comportamento. La vita eterna è già cominciata, è una vita diversa, vera, giusta, piena di cose che meritano di non morire. Una vita come quella di Gesù, buona bella e beata. Il cui nome è libertà, gioia e servizio. La risposta a questo potente desiderio Gesù la fornisce offrendo la sua carne e sangue, che indicano e contengono la sua vita intera, la sua vicenda umana, le sue mani di carpentiere, la sua compassione, il foro dei chiodi, le cose che amava e quelle per cui tremava. E' vivere come lui ha vissuto. Ma: prendete la mia umanità, come lievito della vostra; prendete i miei occhi, e guardate ogni cosa con la mia tenerezza; prendete le mie mani e imparate a rialzare e aiutare. Allora mangiare e bere Cristo è continuare nei pensieri, parole e azioni di Gesù'.

FOOD OF ETERNAL LIFE

In nature, there can be no life without nourishment. The food, whether of plant or animal origin, on which we feed, nourishes and sustains us. Jesus addresses this essential fact of our human condition by reversing its scope: we must feed on himself, his flesh and blood, if we are to begin to know the fullness of life. We live like this forever: the food is different, just as the life it gives us is different. This new kind of food has, on the believer, an immediate effect and is, at the same time, a promise for the future. When we eat the natural food, we are integrated into the biological cycle; through the transformation of biological laws, however, we receive divine life, we are introduced into the very life of God. Just as what we eat and drink, assimilated, becomes part of us, so, by receiving in the sacrament the flesh and blood of Christ, we are "incorporated" into him.
