St. Anthony's Parish is a Catholic Faith community rich in cultural diversity with a strong flavor of identity.

Our mission is to foster a strong spiritual growth of life and faith in our families, community and society by sharing the gift of our time, treasures and talents.

We hope to do this with a Spirit of Christian generosity that brings us closer to the blessing of unity, peace and reconciliation.

Like St. Anthony called to love and to serve - we try our best in following Christ on the road of this world using God-given gifts for his glory and for the good of our brothers and sisters.

Pastor: Rev. Luigi Filippini

Deacons: Rev. Dave Cattani & Rev. Pasquale Coccimiglio

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – B

September 1st, 2024

O Lord, you are good and forgiving, full of love for all who call to you.

If we read today's Gospel carefully, we will see Jesus' first teaching is directed to the Pharisees who questioned him. Jesus' words are then directed to the crowd, teaching that a person is defiled by his or her words and actions, not by the food that he or she eats. Jesus' words challenge us as well. In our desire to show that we are holy, we might also give too much credence to externals, following rules without thinking about the intention behind them. Jesus reminds us that we do not make ourselves holy by our actions. Rather, we become holy when we allow God's Spirit to transform us.

XXII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Se leggiamo attentamente il Vangelo di oggi, vedremo che il primo insegnamento di Gesù è rivolto ai farisei che lo interrogavano. Le parole di Gesù si rivolgono poi alla folla, insegnando che una persona è contaminata dalle sue parole e dalle sue azioni, non dal cibo che mangia. Le parole di Gesù sfidano anche noi. Nel nostro desiderio di dimostrare che siamo santi, potremmo anche dare troppo credito all'esteriorità, seguendo le regole senza pensare all'intenzione che le sottende. Gesù ci ricorda che non ci facciamo santi con le nostre azioni. Piuttosto, diventiamo santi quando permettiamo allo Spirito di Dio di trasformarci.

WHO WILL DELIVER ME

“These people honour me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.” Strong tensions are perceived in the discussion between Jesus and the Pharisees. The subject of the debate is “pure religion.” Jesus places man's heart and his liberation from evil at the center of it, while the Pharisees defend the outward ritual of religion that came from God. When we first realize this, we often begin to take our faith more seriously, follow a Christian way of life more closely, and grow in faith and our relationship with God. We are amazed at our tendency to repeat the same mistakes and fall back into the same indifference. We also understand St. Paul's cry, “I am a wretch! Who will deliver me from this body that gives me no life.”
