EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

March 2, 2025

The blind cannot lead the blind. And a disciple cannot be a good disciple unless they have learned from the teacher. Everyone fully trained is like a teacher who knows how to cure the blind. Before you can be a good disciple and teach others, you must take care of yourself. Do not try to take a speck out of your brother's eye until you have taken the board out of your own. Discipleship asks us to produce good deeds. But to produce them requires the integrity and purity of heart found in the teacher.

VIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Il cieco non può guidare il cieco. E un discepolo non può essere un buon discepolo se non ha imparato dal maestro. Chiunque sia pienamente addestrato è come un maestro che sa come curare i ciechi. Prima di essere un buon discepolo e di insegnare agli altri, dovete prendervi cura di voi stessi. Non cercare di togliere la pagliuzza dall'occhio di tuo fratello prima di aver tolto la pagliuzza dal tuo. Il discepolato ci chiede di produrre buone azioni. Ma per produrle è necessaria l'integrità e la purezza di cuore che si trovano nell'insegnante.

What fruit are you?

Jesus reminds us of one of the fundamental components of the Christian life: being a disciple. Anyone who wants to lead his life alone is a blind man leading a blind man; good fruit is found on a living, well-solid tree. Jesus is the master, and we are his disciples, that is, those who allow themselves to be taught by him, who recognize his authority and trust his words. But blessed is he who, on earth, has been able to discover the spokesmen of this authority, the teachers who actualize, concretize his word, his demands, but also his attentive love. There are also masters who, hidden, allow themselves to be recognized by prepared hearts. Every man must, throughout his life, recognize himself as a disciple of Jesus: follow him and listen to him, in order to put into practice his teaching that leads us to life.
