SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

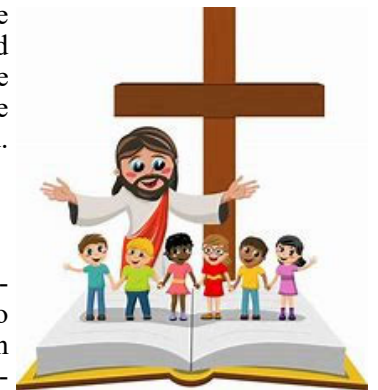

July 20, 2025

The Lord is compassion and love; he always provides for his faithful.

The gospel is telling us that no matter how busy we are we should take time to sit quietly and find the Lord in our world of work and to be guided by him. It is easy to get our priorities wrong because all our working moments are busy ones with little time for sitting at the feet of Jesus, reflecting on our lives. The danger is that if we do not take time to listen to the word of God and to pray, we become slaves of our duties. We rush about and yet the important things can be forgotten and remain undone. One of the great difficulties in life is that we neglect people because we do not have the time to sit down and listen to them. Time spent visiting a lonely soul in a home for the aged can also be time spent in the company of God. For what we do to others we do to Christ.

XVI DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Tanti anni fa, in Cina, vivevano due amici. Uno era molto bravo a suonare l'arpa. L'altro era molto bravo ad ascoltarlo. Quando il primo suonava una canzone che parlava di montagna, il secondo diceva: "Vedo la montagna come se l'avessi davanti". Quando il primo suonava a proposito di un ruscello, quello che ascoltava diceva estasiato: "Sento scorrere l'acqua tra le pietre". Ma un giorno quello che ascoltava si ammalò e morì. Il primo amico tagliò le corde dell'arpa e non suonò mai più. Noi esistiamo veramente solo se qualcuno ci ascolta! Guarda che c'è differenza tra ascoltare e sentire. Sentire è un problema di acustica, ascoltare è un problema di cuore. Si ascolta con lo sguardo. Si ascolta con gli occhi. Si ascolta con le mani. Se tu ascolti, ricevi la possibilità di capire. E' nell'ascolto della Parola di Dio che noi cresciamo in amicizia con colui che ci salva ed e' il nostro Signore.

Jesus, the living word of the Father

The biblical texts that convey this Sunday's message teach us that the God of the Trinity loves to visit humanity from time to time, because His presence is an honour and a blessing. At the time of the patriarchs, he visits Abraham and promises a son to Sarah, who has not yet had one. Jesus, for his part, exalts two women, Mary and Martha, honouring them with his visit and his word. The account of this visit shows us that welcoming Jesus is the most important thing in life. The God of the Trinity continues to visit mankind today. Often, we only realize God's presence after He visits us. On this day, our Lord and Savior invites us to receive him. He is the priest, the announcer, and the guest of this liturgical feast. Let us rejoice in this honour, listen attentively to his word, and celebrate today's communion with him with an attitude of veneration. But above all, let us take to heart what he tells us, because it is the living word for us.
