THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

November 9, 2025

It is interesting that for this feast the Church chooses to proclaim liturgically the passage of Jesus' "purification of the temple." This gesture is accompanied in the Gospel of John by these words: "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" ... He was speaking of the temple of his body." Jesus' body is the true dwelling place of God. The place where all humans can encounter God is Jesus, a man, human flesh who is also the Word of God, the Son of God himself.

DEDICAZIONE DELLA BASILICA LATERANENSE

E' interessante che proprio per questa festa la Chiesa scelga di proclamare liturgicamente il brano della "purificazione del tempio" da parte di Gesù. Gesto accompagnato nel Vangelo di Giovanni da queste parole: «" Distruggete questo tempio e in tre giorni lo farò risorgere"... Egli parlava del tempio del suo corpo». Il corpo di Gesù è la vera dimora di Dio. Il luogo dove tutti gli umani possono incontrare Dio è Gesù, un uomo, una carne umana che è anche la Parola di Dio, il Figlio stesso di Dio.

The Mother Church

When the Roman emperor Constantine converted to Christianity around 312, he gave Pope Miltiades the Lateran Palace, which he had built on the Caelian Hill for his wife Fausta. Around 320, he added a church, the Lateran Church, the first in terms of date and dignity of all the churches in the West. It is considered the mother of all churches in Rome and the world. Consecrated by Pope Sylvester on November 9, 324, with the name of Basilica of the Holy Savior, it was the first church ever to be publicly consecrated. During the 12th century, because of its baptistery, which is the oldest in Rome, it was dedicated to St. John the Baptist, hence its current name of Basilica of St. John Lateran. For more than ten centuries, the popes had their residence nearby, and 250 councils, including five ecumenical councils, were held within its walls. Partially destroyed by fires, wars, and neglect, it was rebuilt under the pontificate of Benedict XIII and reconsecrated in 1726.
