THIRTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

November 16, 2025

Stand up and raise your head because your redemption is drawing near.

Everything in this world, sooner or later, comes to an end. And the world itself will come to an end. In these dying weeks of the year, with the winter gloom upon us, the liturgy recalls the 'last things' for us. 'The time will come,' Jesus told his disciples, 'when not a single stone will be left upon another: everything will be destroyed.' This doomsday scenario is not intended to frighten anybody, less to spoil Sunday's enjoyment. The message is simply that we live our lives in the light of eternity, and we must not lose hope because the trials, troubles and tribulations of the present are not forever.

XXXIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Mentre sta per venire il giorno del Signore, sapendo che sorgerà il sole di giustizia, siamo invitati a non vivere nell'ozio, ma a guadagnarci il pane lavorando con tranquillità nella luce e nella speranza di vita futura. Nei giorni della vita, per rimanere perseveranti, non dobbiamo lasciarci ingannare da false proposte. Il credente perseverante si affida alla Parola, si ciba del Corpo di Cristo, si alimenta nella Speranza, si esercita nella Carità e così prosegue il suo pellegrinaggio verso la vita eterna. Sorgerà il sole per chi teme il nome del Signore, e in quel sole la nostra vita avrà compimento.

New heavens and a new earth

The disciples admire the architecture of the temple. Jesus' eyes see beyond that: he sees the destruction of Jerusalem, natural disasters, signs from heaven, persecution of the Church, and the appearance of false prophets. These are manifestations of the decay of the old world marked by sin and the birth pangs of new heavens and a new earth. The true coming of Christ, on the other hand, will be so evident that no one will doubt it. Jesus encourages his disciples of all times to remain at his side until the end. He will transform all unhappiness, all failures, and even the death of the martyr into glorious resurrection and adoration.
