THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 14, 2025

The spirit of the Lord now upon me has sent me to bring good news to the poor.

The Liturgy of Advent gives us the courage to strengthen our feeble hands and make firm our weak knees. Our hearts can easily become frightened and weighed down by the hardships we face. We can lose patience in our sufferings as we await the coming of the Lord. John knew that life was more than food, the body more than clothing. He sought the kingdom of God first, confident that God would provide. John did not complain. He did not lose faith. Even in chains in his prison cell, he was still sending his disciples—and us—to our Savior. We come to Him again now in the Eucharist.

III DOMENICA DI AVVENTO - GAUDETE

In questa gioiosa domenica di Avvento Gesù domanda ai discepoli di Giovanni che cosa di fatto sono venuti a vedere. Ma se lui è un profeta che volevano vedere, l'hanno visto! Hanno avuto ragione di andare a trovare Giovanni Battista, poiché la legge e i profeti lo avevano designato. Eppure, la gente lo ha seguito ma senza sapere veramente chi lui era. Il Vangelo dà una risposta che ci illumina: di fatto anche noi molte volte non sappiamo quello che vogliono. Colui che celebriamo nel Santo Natale è la risposta a tutte le nostre domande.

Who is Jesus?

When Jesus gives his answer to John the Baptist's messengers, his words are reminiscent of those of a prophet. It must become clear that past hopes are fulfilled in Jesus, even if many things remain unfulfilled. Not all the sick have been healed, not everything has become good. As for those for whom this is not enough, Jesus asks them what they actually came to see. For well-dressed people can be found everywhere. But if it was a prophet they wanted to see, they saw him! They were right to go and see John the Baptist, for the law and the prophets had designated him. Yet the people followed him as children would dance in the market square without caring who was playing the flute. Often people do not know what they want. They run after anyone who promises them something special.
