FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

December 21, 2025

The virgin is with child and shall bear a son, and she will call him Emmanuel.

In Jesus Christ, we have a new creation. Like the creation of the world, it is a work of the Spirit, a blessing from the Lord. In Him, we are saved from our sins, and are called now "the beloved of God." All nations now are called to belong to Jesus Christ, to enter the House of David and the Kingdom of God, the Church. In the Eucharist, the everlasting covenant is renewed, and the Advent promise of a virgin with child—God with us—continues until the end of the age.

IV DOMENICA DI AVVENTO

Emmanuele è uno dei nomi di Gesù; egli stesso se lo riconosce e in certo senso lo riempie di significato. Le sue ultime parole ai discepoli prima di congedarsi da loro sono state: "Ecco, Io-sono-con-voi sino alla fine dei secoli". La presenza di Gesù in mezzo agli uomini è cominciata a Betlemme e non finirà mai. Egli è venuto tra noi, per noi e ha abbracciato la nostra condizione umana. L'Emmanuele, il Dio-con-noi, è presente tuttora, là dove lui stesso ci ha detto di cercarlo: e questo è il vero motivo per cui ogni anno si celebra il Natale.

Divine and human history

The story that God began with Abraham has now reached its goal in Jesus Christ. The goal is not the end of history, for history continues, but in a new way. It shows us how new this story is with the “birth of Jesus Christ.” The Gospel of Matthew says: “Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born.” But who is the real father of Jesus? And the answer is absolutely clear: it is “by the Holy Spirit” that Mary is expecting a child. But the text undoubtedly expresses something more. It is not because he was conceived in this extraordinary way that Jesus is the goal of the history of Israel and the foundation of a new community; rather, it is a matter of understanding that in Jesus, God has united himself with us humans, as a final and eternal remedy. That is why Mary's son must bear the name Jesus, meaning “The Lord saves,” and that is why we can also call Jesus Emmanuel, which translates as “God is with us.” This is the message with which Matthew begins his Gospel.
