THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

January 4, 2026

We have seen his star in the east and have come to adore the Lord.

The Epiphany reminds us of our journey into another year following the individual path which we alone are to tread. Life is a pilgrimage, a long journey. An "epiphany" is an appearance. In today's readings, with their rising stars, splendourous lights and mysteries revealed, the face of the child born on Christmas day appears. It calls for us to look around and search for the Lord who is in our midst, in situations where previously we were unaware of his presence. He comes to people and places we least expect and at times when we are most unprepared for his company.

EPIFANIA DEL SIGNORE

La stella, segno della luce che è Dio, brillò su Betlemme e i maghi entrarono e videro il bambino "con Maria sua madre, si prostrarono e lo adorarono" come il vero Re. A questo Re, offrono "in dono oro, incenso e mirra". Sono doni che indicano anche il ruolo di questo Messia. Gesù è re e per questo gli offrono l'oro. Gesù è sacerdote: ecco l'incenso che soltanto i sacerdoti potevano offrire nel Tempio. Gesù è lo sposo: ecco la mirra che è il profumo della sposa, dell'umanità intera che Dio ama. Anche gli estranei, i Magi, con i loro doni, riconoscono e accolgono Dio e il suo amore. Nessun popolo è escluso dall'amore di Dio!

A journey of discovery

The journey from the East, the search, the star that appeared to the Magi, the sight of the Savior and his adoration are the stages that peoples and individuals had to go through in their journey to meet the Savior of the world. The light and its call are not things of the past, for they are part of the history of each of our faiths. "When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great joy." We can see the star in the doctrine and sacraments of the Church, in the signs of the times, in wise words and good advice, which together constitute the answer to our questions about salvation and the Savior. Let us also rejoice in the fact that God, always watching over those who walk guided by a star in his mercy, reveals to us in many ways the true light, Christ, the Savior King.
