THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 25, 2026

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The gospel of the Kingdom includes not only the twelve tribes of Israel but all the nations—symbolized by the "Galilee of the Nations." Jesus called his first disciples and appoints them to be "fishers of men" gathering people from the ends of the earth. They are to preach the gospel and bring light in a world of darkness. Ordinary people with no special training are called to the extraordinary task of bringing the knowledge and love of God to the whole world. You and I are chosen to follow the Lord and to become the Good News he wants us to be.

III DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO Settimana di Preghiera per l'Unità dei Cristiani - Il Vangelo è sempre, per tutti, tempo di conversione, punto di partenza della vita cristiana che consiste nel seguire Gesù. Lui è il missionario del Padre, perché in lui parola e azione vanno sempre insieme. Il Vangelo è per tutti coloro che ascoltano la sua parola e la vivono ogni giorno. Il primo gesto di Gesù è la chiamata di quattro pescatori. I discepoli hanno un'importanza così fondamentale per la missione di Gesù. Si diventa veri pescatori solo seguendo Gesù. Questa è l'unica cosa che dobbiamo fare, il resto lo fa Lui.

Light in the darkness

The evangelist Matthew, drawing on an image from the book of Isaiah, tells us what Jesus is for us: light. In our lives, we often see darkness, resistance, difficulties, unresolved tasks that pile up before us like an enormous mountain, problems with our children or friends, loneliness, unpleasant work... It is Jesus who brings light into the darkness of our lives. It is neither our work, nor our knowledge, nor our success that saves us. Because the value of our life is not based on what we do, nor on the consideration or influence we acquire. It takes on its full value because God watches over us and is always with us. His light penetrates our deepest darkness, even where we have lost all hope. The vast multitude in darkness has seen a bright light; a light has appeared to those who were in the dark realm of death!
