FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

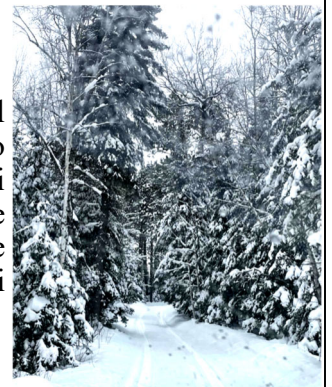

February 8, 2026

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; whoever follows me will have the light of life.

Jerusalem was to be a city set on a hill, high above all others, drawing all nations towards the glorious light streaming from her Temple. And Israel was given the mission of being a light to the nations, that God's salvation would reach the ends of the earth. This week's readings remind us that our faith can never be a private affair, something we can hide as if under a basket. Our light must shine as a ray of God's mercy for all who are poor, hungry, naked, and enslaved. So let us pray that we, like St. Paul in the Epistle, might proclaim with our whole lives, "Christ and him crucified" is the light of the world.

V DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

Il buio mette sempre preoccupazione e angoscia, la luce invece favorisce la conoscenza e il dialogo tra le persone. E se le persone, come è risaputo, hanno doni e carismi, non possono essere messi a tacere o nasconderli, ma devono essere messi a disposizione per il bene di tutti. Il Maestro Gesù ci raccomanda una cosa molto importante: "far risplendere la luce della grazia, della misericordia, della bontà di Dio davanti a tutti, perché vedano le opere buone dei cristiani e tutti rendano gloria al Padre che è nei cieli". In poche parole, si tratta di fare il bene, agire bene con l'amore che Gesù ci ha insegnato.

Light and salt

If I put a large spoonful of salt in soup, it will be inedible. Only a pinch is needed to flavor it. Our world would be poor, inhuman, and cold if there were no people who showed spontaneous kindness and generosity. Being the salt of the earth: are we confident enough to believe in the contagious nature of goodness? Or are we content to fear the contagious power of evil? A pinch of salt is enough to flavor an entire dish. Each of us, even if we feel isolated, is fortunate enough to be able to change the climate around us! Jesus believes we are capable: you are the salt of the earth, you are the light of the world! Are we?
