THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

June 28, 2026

We're not all called to the ministry of the Apostles, or to be prophets like Elisha in today's First Reading. But each of us is called to a holy life. At Baptism, our lives were joined forever to the cross of Christ, as Paul tells us in the Epistle. Baptized into His death, we're to renounce sin and live for God in Christ Jesus. By Baptism, we've been made part of a new family—the kingdom of God, the Church. We are to proclaim that kingdom with our lives. We do this by opening our hearts in service to the Lord.

XIII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO

We are not all called to the ministry of the Apostles, or to be prophets like Elisha in today's First Reading. But each of us is called to a holy life. At Baptism, our lives were united forever to the cross of Christ, as Paul tells us in the Epistle. Baptized into His death, we are to renounce sin and live for God in Christ Jesus. Part one: Gathering rites.

Coming together, assembling, is at the heart of our Sunday worship. The reason behind each of the ritual actions of the first part of the Mass can be found in this word: gathering. The purpose of these rites is to bring us together into one body, ready to listen and to break bread together.

Greeters. In many churches today there will be someone at the door to greet you as you arrive for Sunday Mass: We all like to be greeted and welcomed when we gather for a celebration. When friends come for a meal or a party, we greet them at the door and welcome them into our home. Use of water. One of the first things Catholics do when they come to church is dipping their right hand in water and make the sign of the cross. This ritual is a reminder of our Baptism: We were baptized with water and signed with the cross. At every Mass we renew our promises to die to sin.
